

Summer 2011 -Baseball Mission Trips

SCORE International

Dominican Republic

(Left) Coach Phil Arington prepares the Spikes' team for competition.

(Right) The Spikes had special jerseys made for their trip. Proverbs 27:17: "As iron sharpens iron, so one man sharpens another."

(Left) John Zeller (SCORE Executive Director) shared the Gospel as SCORE missionary Giovanni Valdez translated.

(Right) A young Dominican baseball player edges the baseline with a machete.

College baseball players from across the country bonded quickly as a team during this week of serving & competing.

Both teams were able to share their love at a girls' orphanage in La Ramano.

(Left) Alabama catcher Brett Booth smiles even though he's wearing Wildcat catching gear.

(Right) During our second day of competition, the college team transformed a shade tree into a dugout in a field near Santo Domingo

